Subject : Results at a glance

The Result of IAS Phase-I Final Examination, held in June, 2013 in this Academy in respect of the IAS Officer-trainees of 2012 batch, has been finalised and is ready for notification.

A scrutiny of the results reveals the following facts :-

1. Initially 171 Officer-trainees of 2012 batch including 03 Officer-trainees of Royal Bhutan Service joined IAS Professional Course (Phase-I).
2. Officer-Trainees have cleared the Examination.
3. The Part-I (The IAS Probationers' Final Examination) was in respect of the following five subjects, carrying the maximum marks as shown against them :-

		Max . Marks.
(i)	Public Administration :	60
(ii)	Basic Economic Principles and Five Year Plans :	60
(iii)	Management and Behavioural Science :	60
(iv)	Law :	60
(v)	Political Concepts and Constitution of India :	60

4. The IAS Probationers' Final Examination has another component, which is described as "Part-II Qualifying Test". It relates to General Hindi Examination by Probationers allotted to Non-Hindi Speaking States and Computer. Only IAS Probationers took the General Hindi Examination and probationers passed the Hindi exam and IAS Probationers including 02 RBCS Probationers took Computer Module Examination and passed it.

Note : The pass marks in each paper are fixed at 50% i.e. an officer-trainee has to secure at least 50% in each paper in order to be declared as having passed therein. I am happy to declare that pass percentage at the examination is 98.83 %.

5. Pass percentage, calculated on the basis of 171, comes to out of 171 Officer-trainees two officer-trainees from Royal Bhutan Service for whose passing the examination are obligatory.
